

The Association of Religious Communities (ARC)

Invites all children ages 8-11 to apply to attend Interfaith Peace Camp !

August 1-5, 2022

Each day campers learn “What Peace means” to a different world religion. Throughout the week campers share what peace means to them as they explore fun, friendly ways to create peace with each other and in our greater Danbury community. Children will have fun making new friends as they visit five different sacred sites in our community, including a:

- Christian Church
- Buddhist Community
- Islamic Masjid
- Jewish Synagogue
- Native American Grounds

Camp runs 9:00 am to 3:00 pm daily.

Camp includes lunches, healthy snacks, all supplies for games, crafts and interactive activities.

Cost is $150 for the week. (Scholarships are available to any family in need of support)

Camp is limited to 25 children. (Please register ASAP!)

To Register – email your application to: housingfirst@arcforpeace.org

Or mail a hard copy to: Devyn Whiting, ARC Camp Coordinator 24 Delay St, Suite 4 Danbury, CT 06810

Applications must be received before June 30, 2022.

This project also provides the opportunity for high school and college age students to work as Peer leaders and gain experience as young leaders in the community. Peer leaders receive a $200 stipend.

For information on serving as a peer leader or scholarship opportunities for campers please email Ari Rosenberg at excdir@arcforpeace.org
